The Department of Italian is conducting its 44th summer program in Italy in the beautiful city of Urbino. This study abroad program provides students at various levels with an opportunity to study Italian language, literature, and culture in their natural environment. Classes are available in Italian and English. Urbino is an ideal location for summer study for its climate, its proximity to major centers of Italian culture, its University, and the superb setting of a Renaissance city. Beaches on the Adriatic are within easy access. The Summer 2016 Session will be under the direction of a Professor of Italian at Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey. Students will stay in dorms at the University of Urbino. Three meals a day will be provided. All classes meet five days a week; regular attendance is mandatory. Program cost includes tours of Urbino and cultural group excursions to some of the most beautiful cities in Italy. All students must participate in the planned group excursions since they are an integral part of the course work. Program cost includes round-trip airfare from New York/Newark to Italy on approximately July 2nd and transfer to Urbino by bus.
