Course objective:

101 aims to develop communicative proficiency of the target language and culture by cultivating the five skills of speaking, listening, reading, writing and cultural competency in the interpretive, interpersonal, and presentational modes. Upon successful completion of the course students should be able to:

❖ COMPREHEND the main ideas of both spoken and written language along with some supporting details from both edited and non-edited, highly contextualized and uncomplicated, oral situations and written texts that represent authentic situations.

❖ COMMUNICATE using learned words and phrases and simple sentences in both oral and written contexts. The student should be able to describe and narrate in the present by asking and answering simple questions and creating coherent sentences and short paragraphs to express personal meaning about a variety of topics.

❖ COMPARE similarities and differences with regard to products and practices of the target culture and their own, while demonstrating a cultural awareness and understanding when they communicate.

Test dates:

The midterm exam is on Thursday, March 9^h during the regular class period. The final exam is TBA. The two oral tests will be administered in week 5 and week 11. Check with your instructor for accurate test dates.

Make up policy:

MISSED QUIZZES CANNOT BE MADE UP. If you take all quizzes the lowest grade will be dropped when the class final grade is calculated. Missing more than one quiz will result in a "0" grade for each additional missed quizzes.

Attendance/participation:

Students are expected to attend all classes; if you expect to miss one or two classes, please use the University absence reporting website <https://sims.rutgers.edu/ssra/> to indicate the date and reason for your absence. An email is automatically sent to me.

All students must attend regularly. No more than four absences are allowed; use them wisely, for health and other serious issues. Having more than four absences, arriving to class late, and engaging in behavior that is distracting to the rest of the class are grounds for a significantly lower mark in class participation.

Disabilities policy:

In case students with disabilities should require any special type of assistance and would like to request accommodations, they must follow the procedures outlined at: <http://disabilityservices.rutgers.edu/request.html>

Cell phone policy:

Cell phone use of any form (i.e. texting, internet browsing, etc..) during class is prohibited. Use of a cell phone will negatively affect your participation grade.

Language Lab work:

is a mandatory part of the course. All assignments must be handed in on time. You should spend as much time in the lab as you need in order to complete your assignments properly. You may use any or all of the labs; your instructor receives weekly attendance reports to keep track of your visits.

Language policy:

Italian is the language of instruction in this course and the use of English in the classroom will adversely affect your grade.

Academic Integrity / Plagiarism:

In order to avoid plagiarism (the representation of the words or ideas of others as one's own), every quotation must be identified by quotation marks or appropriate indentation and must be properly cited in the text or in a footnote. Always acknowledge your sources clearly and completely when you paraphrase or summarize material from another source (in print, electronic, or other medium) on whole or in part. If you are in doubt, please consult the policy on plagiarism and academic integrity at Rutgers and do not hesitate to ask your instructor for clarifications.
