

Rutgers Non-Matriculating Students: Placement Testing

Step 1) An email will be sent to you from Sakai asking you to set a password. Complete that step before following links for the tests. Check your spam email folders to make sure you get this.

Step 2) Click on the appropriate link to the test you need to take (do not click “begin assessment” until you are ready for time to start):

- For Italian: click here
- Note: this test requires functioning speakers to be turned on.

Step 3) Once you click on the link to the test, log into Sakai by clicking on “Email Login.” Screen example:

Step 4) Type in your full email address and the password you created. If you did not previously create a password, or have forgotten your password, use the “Forgot your password?” function. Screen example:

Step 5) When you successfully log in using the test link provided, you can click on the “Sites” button on the upper right hand corner of the screen. Under that, you will see “Projects” and you can find the Italian Placement Exam there. Click on that and you will see instructions. Carefully read through all instructions, and go through the list of required items. Please email testingandplacement@rutgers.edu to let us know that you’ve completed testing to ensure that your results get processed in a timely fashion.
