

Major and Minor

The Major in Italian is comprised of two sets of courses: the first is designed to provide students linguistic proficiency; the second offers students a solid foundation in Italian cultural production across the centuries—from Dante to opera, theater, and contemporary film. Both Italian Majors and Minors can begin with 01:560:101.

Language Proficiency		Cultural Competence
6 courses in language at any level	6	5 courses from the Italian Studies Course List	5
Required: 321 or 322 Advanced Conversation		ALL 200-400 level content classes, plus those taught in other Depts—Classics, Art History, etc. and includes 200-level courses in English.
Placed into 121 Intensive Italian or above? Take additional courses at the 200-400 level in Italian.		Minimum of 3 THREE courses at the 300-400 level in Italian.

Italian Minor

6 courses in Italian language and culture. Students must complete 01:560:132.

Remaining courses to be chosen from the Italian Studies Course List. Students must earn a minimum grade of C to count the course toward the Minor. The student's program must be approved by the Undergraduate Director.

NB: 1.5 Credit "Mini-Courses" do NOT count toward the Major/Minor

NB: 105/6 Italian for Reading Knowledge does NOT count toward the Major/Minor

RUTGERS

School of Arts and Sciences

Rutgers Italian Department 848-932-7031 italian.rutgers.edu

Undergraduate Director, Professor Carmela Scala

carmela.scala@rutgers.edu